Media Advisory Aggravated Assault Arrest

The Wichita Police Department (WPD) has arrested 37-year-old James Hirsh of Wichita on three counts of aggravated assault and one count of aggravated criminal threat.

At approximately 8:50 p.m. on Wednesday, officers responded to a disturbance at the Dillions in the 3200 block of South Seneca.

Upon arrival, officers contacted private security and Dillon's employees, who reported a Hirsh entered the business and got into a disturbance with an employee regarding Chick-Fil-A sauce being on sale. Hirsh was asked to calm down or leave the store when he began throwing punches. Private security detained Hirsh until he calmed down. Hirsh then threatened staff, exited the store, and got into his car. He drove his vehicle toward the entrance doors of the business, where staff were standing before leaving.

There were no injuries in this case. The investigation is ongoing, and the case will be presented to the Sedgwick County District Attorney's Office.

The case number is 21C032750.
